PRESS RELEASE

Right of pre-emption

Unidata shareholders who exercise their option right during the offer will also be able to exercise the right of pre-emption to purchase any withdrawn shares that may have remained unexercised at the end of the offer. Shareholders who intend to exercise this right of pre-emption must request it at the same time as exercising the right of option. If the number of withdrawn shares thus requested is greater than the number of withdrawn shares remaining unpurchased, the distribution will be made among all the shareholders who have requested it in proportion to the number of option rights exercised by each of them.

Further terms and conditions of the offer will be indicated in a specific notice, which will be filed with the Company Registry of Rome, published in a national newspaper and made available on the Unidata website (www.unidata.it - Investors section). In compliance with the applicable legal provisions, in the event that withdrawn shares remain unpurchased at the end of the offer, such shares may be offered and sold to third parties.
