allow Unidata to strengthen its presence in the area and increase the pool of opportunities connected to similar projects.

Unidata supports the CEBF Fund with the role of industrial partner in the investment in ClioFiber, which is the second project in Italy for CEBF, after Unifiber, for the creation of the FTTH network in gray areas.

Renato Brunetti, Chairman and CEO of Unidata, declared: "We are very satisfied to communicate our participation in ClioFiber and to collaborate again with CEBF, with whom we already cooperate through the Unifiber joint venture in Lazio and from which we receive renewed trust for this new great project for the gray areas of Salento. For us at Unidata, joining this digitalisation project of the gray areas of Puglia, aimed at reducing the digital divide, represents a commitment and a challenge with high technological and human content. Since 2022 we have been present with an operational and commercial headquarter in Bari, in the industrial area of Modugno, which is why it seemed like a natural step for us to engage in this project by making our expertise as an industrial partner available".
